2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Ardagh BNS is a Catholic all boys primary school with a Catholic ethos under the patronage of the Bishop of Cork and Ross.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at :

- (a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (b) a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and
- (d) The formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith

The school provides religious education for the pupils of Roman Catholic persuasion, while respecting the wishes of non-Roman Catholic parents who do not wish their children to receive Religious Education in accordance with the teaching of the Roman Catholic Church.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Ardagh BNS shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

Mission Statement:

The school aims to:

- Nurture the spiritual as well as the physical, emotional and intellectual needs of the individual.
- Foster and encourage respect for the individual, the community and the environment.
- Foster a mutually respecting and supportive relationship between management, staff and parents.
- Provide a comprehensive curriculum to cater for the full development of each individual.
- Foster links with parents through regular communication.
- Accommodate, insofar as possible, the wishes of parents and guardians who follow other religious beliefs, either by facilitating accredited pastoral agents and / or affording their children the clear option of excluding themselves from the religious instruction provided by the school.
- Foster the national language, culture and traditions, with due regard to the influences of the wider world.

General objectives:

- The school recognises that all children are complex human beings with physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual needs and endeavours to cater for the full and harmonious development of each child through a broadly based and balanced curriculum.

- The school recognises the individuality of each child and aims to cater for this individuality. Each child is encouraged to do his best and no child should be forced beyond his capabilities.
- The child is seen as an active agent in the learning process: directed activity and discovery methods should be an integral part of teaching.
- The School recognises the importance of the environment as a context for learning, as a resource for many areas of the curriculum and as an effective means of integrating subjects.
